OUR HISTORY

Pars Sadra Fanavar Manufacturing and Trading Company was established in 2006, initially focusing on the supply of raw materials for manufacturing, alongside the development of premium cosmetic and healthcare products.

Today, the company proudly offers specialized product lines across three therapeutic categories—Skin, Hair, and Ophthalmic care—while also engaging in the large-scale distribution and Mother & Child products. Our diverse portfolio includes distinguished brands such as Eyesol, Blephamed, Vitalayer, Bergamia, Vitaplex, Pro-Biopeptide, and Elvina.

Driven by a commitment to excellence, all products are formulated using high-quality raw materials sourced from leading global suppliers. This dedication ensures that our products meet international standards and are widely recommended by dermatologists, with distribution through reputable pharmacies.

At Pars Sadra Fanavar, our greatest asset is human resources. From visionary leadership to our skilled production and sales teams, we are united in delivering the level of quality that consumers truly deserve.

Our latest venture, the luxury skincare brand Eudora Max, represents a new milestone in our journey. By leveraging our extensive expertise and strong organizational foundation, we strive to fulfill our ultimate mission: delivering world-class products that celebrate the beauty, grace, and elegance of women.

The Art of Scent, The Essence of You

ELLA PERFUME

The fragrance of a scent is an enchanter, arriving unbidden to whisper tales of love into your soul. Within the heart of this aroma, memory lingers, vivid and eternal. It carries the essence of presence; the presence of someone who may no longer walk beside you. Like opening a forgotten book hidden in the dusty corners of your mind, it unfurls a blend of rain-soaked air and the warmth of skin. This fragrance does more than awaken the senses; it opens a window to a world of reverie and longing.

"Ella" gently takes your hand and, without permission or intent, guides you to a realm beyond the boundaries of time. In these fleeting moments, you dwell in the house of your memories, losing yourself in the embrace of the past. Sometimes, it offers a reason to smile; at other times, it invites a profound and reflective silence. The scent of "Ella" becomes your confidant, weaving through your sweetest recollections and keeping them alive in its tender embrace.
